About this book

This book is about NDIS price changes.

The price of services have gone up.

For example, the prices for

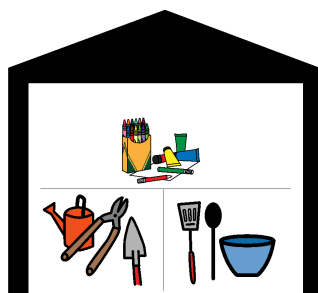

- help with everyday activities and skills

- help to be part of the community

- help at home

- help at your day service.

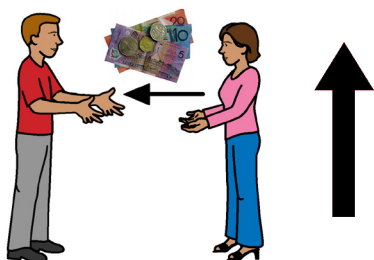

These prices changed because the government reviewed disability support worker wages.

The NDIS increased prices to cover the higher wages.

When will NDIS prices change?

Scope will charge new NDIS prices from 1 July 2022.

What do price changes mean for you?

The price changes mean most people will pay more for supports.

You will get more money in your NDIS plan to pay for the higher prices.
