What is the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS)?

The National Disability Insurance Scheme is also called the NDIS

The NDIS is the new way of funding disability support.

The NDIS means you will receive your funding in a different way.

Your funding will be paid to you instead of service providers like Hunter Disability Services.

You will be able to choose which service provider you would like to use.

Your family and carers can help you choose if you want them to.

What is the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA)?

The National Disability Insurance Agency is also called the NDIA.

The NDIA has the job of making the NDIS work properly.

The NDIA can tell you:

- how the NDIS will work
- and
- what help you can get

What does the NDIS fund?

With the NDIS, you can get funding for

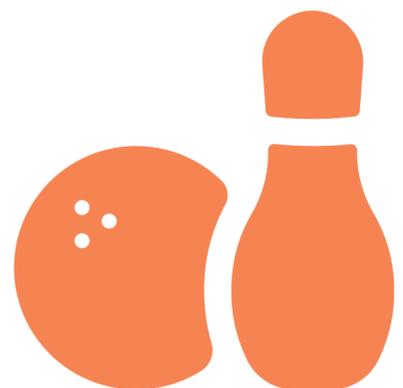

- what you need every day
- and
- your goals

Your goals are things that are important to you.

Your goals may be about

- where you live
- what you like to do
- where you want to go
- where you want to work

or

- what you would like to learn.

The NDIS only funds support linked to your disability

The NDIS does not fund daily costs like

- rent or board
- food

or

- phone bills

To get funding, you must create a plan

What is an NDIS plan?

Everyone who accesses the NDIS will have to make a plan

You will make your plan with a person chosen by the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA)

This person may be called a planner or a Local Area Coordinator

Your Person you plan with will talk to you about

- what you want
- and
- what you need help you to

- set your goals
- and
- choose the support that will go in your plan
- support you to work together with your family and carers
- tell you about services available in the community

- support you to develop a service agreement with your service provider

Your plan will include:

- the support you need
- your goals

and

- how much money you have to spend on these things

Once your plan is finished, you can choose:

- Who will provide your support
This will be who you pay for services

- When you get your support
For example, during the day or at night

- Who will manage your funds.

This could be you, a family member or someone you ask to do this for you

How can I get ready to plan?

Before you meet with a planner you should think about

- what you get now
- what you want to do
- how these things will be put into your plan
- who you would like to help you prepare your plan

go to the meeting with you

You might choose a family member or advocate or group of people to help you

Your plan should include the help you will need:

now

in the future

- to get a job if you would like one
- to do more things in the community
- to learn new things if you would like to

You can talk about this with your

- family
- friends
- advocates

and

- HDS / other organisations you get services from

Who can get the NDIS?

You have to be eligible to use the NDIS

To get the NDIS you must

- live where the NDIS is available
- have a disability that means you need support for your lifetime

and

- need some help to do the things you want to do
