Privacy and Confidentiality

WHAT INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT?

When you need our support, we will need to collect some information about you. Some of the information may be about the support you are currently getting at home. Sometimes, this includes details about your family and carers.

PRIVACY LAWS

In Australia, we have laws about privacy. These laws say we must keep information about you safe, we must tell you how we will use the information about you, you can ask to see information about you and ask to change it, you can tell us if you are not happy with how we have used your information.

SHARING INFORMATION

Sometimes, we need to share information about you with your permission. We may also use your information to help us to work out how we provide services and how we can provide services better.

RULES ABOUT SHARING INFORMATION

We can share information about you so that we can give you the help you ask for, if you say that it's OK, so that we can prevent problems from happening, or stop people from being hurt, if we are asked to provide information by the courts or police.

CONTACT US

If you'd like to know more about the information we keep about you and your privacy rights, you can call us on 0467531902
